

CALETA DE PESCADORES PORTALES
PABELLON PARA MATERIALES DE PESCA
ESCALA 1:200

An architectural drawing of a long, single-story building with a tiled roof and a small bell tower, situated on a rocky shore with waves and a small boat in the foreground. The drawing is a perspective view, showing the building's length and its relationship to the surrounding environment. The building has a series of small, rectangular windows along its side and a larger, arched opening at the end. The roof is covered in a pattern of small, dark squares, representing tiles. The foreground shows a rocky shore with waves crashing against it, and a small boat is visible in the water. The background is a simple, stylized representation of the sky and sea. The drawing is executed in a sketchy, hand-drawn style, with visible lines and shading. The overall tone is sepia or aged, suggesting it is a historical or archival document. The text at the top left identifies the project as a 'CALETA DE PESCADORES PORTALES' (Fishing Port) and a 'PABELLON PARA MATERIALES DE PESCA' (Fishing Materials Pavilion), with a scale of 1:200. The drawing is a perspective view, showing the building's length and its relationship to the surrounding environment. The building has a series of small, rectangular windows along its side and a larger, arched opening at the end. The roof is covered in a pattern of small, dark squares, representing tiles. The foreground shows a rocky shore with waves crashing against it, and a small boat is visible in the water. The background is a simple, stylized representation of the sky and sea. The drawing is executed in a sketchy, hand-drawn style, with visible lines and shading. The overall tone is sepia or aged, suggesting it is a historical or archival document.

~~Unlabeled~~